c. How to use Shuttle bus in the city

After completing the Immigration and Customs formalities upon arrival to Russian Federation you are leaving the terminal and proceed to the shuttle bus station, which is located right in front of the terminal. At the station you will find the minibuses with “ST. PETER LINE” logo on them.

All shuttle buses are running on the route according to the schedule. Both route and schedule are available at the web – site www.stpeterline.com (close “City Tours” → “Saint Petersburg”). Having the “Departure” part of “Arrival/Departure” card you can board and leave the shuttle bus unlimited times during the day at the bus stops indicated on the map at the web – site. Also please pay attention to the fact that the shuttle bus service is available within days of ships stay only.

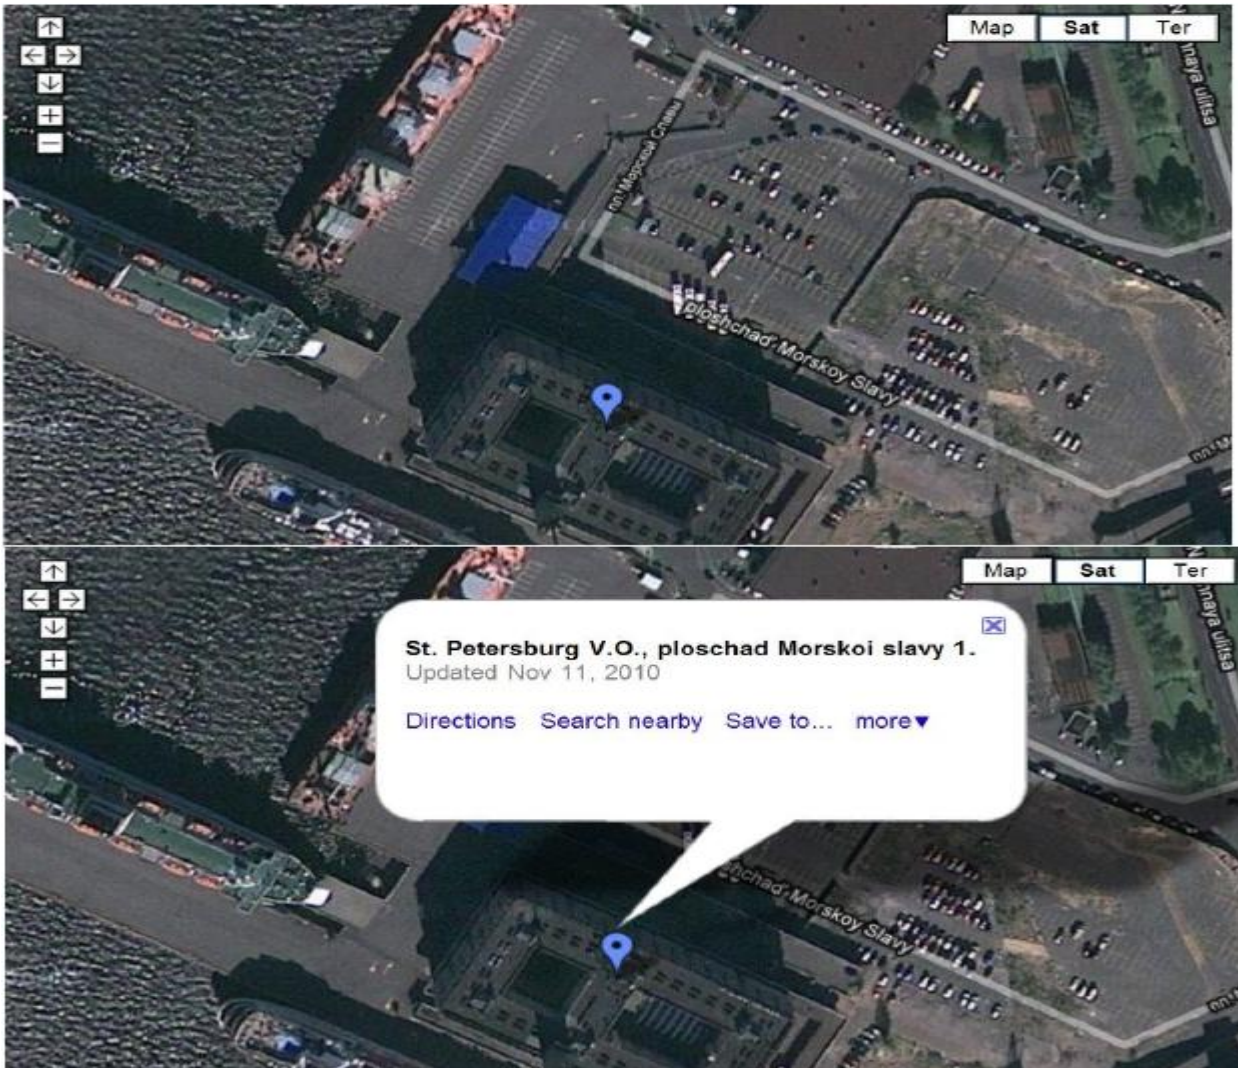

Departure part of the “Arrival/Departure” Card

Step 5. Departure from St. Petersburg

On the day of departure from St. Petersburg you take the shuttle bus at any point of stop indicated on the map at our web – site www.stpeterline.com (close “City Tours” → “Saint Petersburg”) or you can drive directly to the terminal “Morskoy Vokzal” (The Maritime Glory Plaza 1, 199106 St-Petersburg). Inside the terminal you proceed directly to the Immigration Control through the Customs checking zone (no second registration on the cruise is required)

In order to facilitate the procedures at the Immigration check point please ensure before leaving the ship that you have the following documents ready:

Passport

Boarding card
